

50 THINGS TO DO BEFORE YOU GRADUATE

1. Go to L.L. Bean in the middle of the night.
2. Attend a Bowdoin/Colby hockey game.
3. Eat sushi from the Café.
4. Go to Old Port in Portland.
5. Visit Popham Beach and walk to the island at lowtide.
6. Climb Mt. Katahdin.
7. Eat at Joshua's Tavern.
8. Make something at Clay Play.
9. Go to Land's End or Giant Steps.
10. Take a nap on the Quad.
11. Be the last to leave brunch/dinner at Thorne.
12. Polar Bearing (i.e. run naked into the ocean).
13. Participate in a winter BOC activity.
14. Leave feedback for the dining hall staff – they really listen.
15. Go see a movie at Evening Star Cinema.
16. Have a snowball fight in the quad.
17. Eat at a professor's house.
18. Go to the Chamberlain Museum.
19. Eat at Fat Boys.
20. Get to know a staff member.
21. Take a faculty member to lunch in the dining hall. We actually like spending time getting to know our students outside of class!
22. Stargaze.
23. Be quoted in the Orient.
24. Do a radio show!
25. Take a sunrise hike at Morse Mountain.
26. Take a class entirely for fun, completely different from your major.
27. Go to the Farmer's Market on the mall in Brunswick.
28. Try every flavor of ice cream that Cotes offers. Grape Nut comes highly recommended.
29. Walk through the cemetery and actually look at the headstones on the graves... there are some pretty incredible people buried in there.
30. Take a hike at the Coastal Studies center. Bring a picnic if the weather is good.
31. Take a boat ride out on the ocean. Cheap cruises leave from Portland every day.
32. Watch a sports team compete that you've never seen before.
33. Go out for a dinner date at Scarlet B's.
34. Pull an all-nighter in a 24-hour computer lab and wait outside Thorne to be the first at breakfast.
35. Participate in Common Good Day.
36. Ice skate on the mall in Brunswick.
37. Eat the best pizza on the Midcoast at the Cabin in Bath.
38. Attend (at least) one senior art opening, a concert band performance, and a spring musical.
39. Visit Acadia National Park.
40. Walk amongst the Bowdoin Pines.
41. Take in the Bliss Room in Hubbard Hall.
42. Embrace the inner geek. Engage in vigorous intellectual discourse with your peers. You don't really get a lot of opportunities to do this outside of college.
43. Brunswick Diner on Sundays.
44. Be friends with Randy Nichols.
45. Visit the Arctic Studies Museum.
46. Go to Common Hour.
47. Go to the top of the tower at sunset or sunrise.
48. Have a conversation with John Bisbee.
49. Get all your work done and go to bed at 11... for once.
50. Build an igloo.
